4. Report the missionary money paid by the Sabbath-school separately.

5. Presiding elders will please bring to the next session a complete list of local preachers in their districts. Let the report state whether they are merely licensed, or deacons, or elders. Add their post-office addresses.

6. Write proper name and figures with extreme care.

7. Bring your Detailed Missionary Report carefully and legibly written on one side of your paper.

N. B.—It will be noticed that we have paged the Minutes of this year where they left off last year. REPORTS.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

YOUR Committee would report: Recognizing the Holy Scriptures, as accepted by the Evangelical Protestant Churches, as the Word of God and the "only rule of faith and practice;" and witnessing with alarm the persistent efforts of the Roman Catholic Church, abetted by skeptics and infidels, to prevent their circulation and eject them from our public-schools; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we will use our utmost influence, both to retain the Bible in our schools, and to increase its circulation among all classes.

2. Resolved, That we will earnestly co-operate with the agents of the American Bible Society in its efforts to raise funds for the publication of the Scriptures, and to promote their universal dissemination.

3. Resolved, That the members of this Conference use their best endeavors to collect full and accurate information as to the amounts contributed to the American Bible Society, and report the same to the Conference next year.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

YOUR Committee on Church Extension present the following report:

Since there is a constantly increasing demand throughout the South and West for houses of worship, caused by the constant tide of emigration and the onward march of science, civilization, and religion; and since the Church Extension Society has been organized to supply this demand, and has been, and is now, largely instrumental in accomplishing this great work; therefore,

1. Resolved, That in the Church Extension Society we recognize a great power, under God, to the accomplishment of the work designed, in building houses of worship, and in the salvation of men.

2. Resolved, That we will carry out the disciplinary plan of operation, and endeavor to inspire our people with a love for this great cause, by suitably explaining its design and work.

No. 4.

REPORT ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

WE regard the Sabbath-school one of the potent agencies of the Church in the disseminating of truth and the teaching of the doctrines of the Bible.

We are happy to be able to report rapid and permanent growth in this great work, and each year brings new developments of onward progress in almost every department. The report of the Sunday-school Union, for the year 1873, shows an increase of 804 schools, of 5,424 officers and teachers, of 64,723 scholars. The evidence evinced by these figures, and the increased demand for the different helps and aids to the proper preparation of the Sunday-school lesson, and the unprecedented gathering of the great "Sunday-school Assembly," at Fairpoint, Chautauqua Lake, New York, and the fact of sixty thousand souls being converted in our Church in one year, through this instrumentality, clearly demonstrate the importance of this branch of Church work; therefore, be it

Resolved, That as ministers we will give even more hearty encouragement to the Sunday-school in the future than we have in the past, and that we will use our influence to engage the co-operation of all the members of our charges in this work.

Resolved, That the Sunday-school Assembly, recently held at Chautauqua Lake, New York, developing an increased interest in the Protestant Churches of our land, in the religious culture of the youth, gives an encouraging indication of progress in the right direction, and that the publication of the addresses, proceedings, and exercises of that occasion, embracing the experience and talent of the most successful Sunday-school workers of our country, furnishes us an opportunity to obtain a large amount of valuable information, which it will be wise in us to obtain.

Resolved, That the spiritual interest of our Sunday-schools require greater efforts to secure Sunday-school workers of undoubted piety, and especially persons of age and experience in the divine life. J. A. SARGENT, Secretary.

No. 5.

REPORT ON POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

YOUR Committee on Popular Amusements report the following:

1. Resolved, That the spirit and teachings of the Gospel inculpate those who follow the practice of such as do not belong to the Church of Christ, in their habits of selecting amusements.

2. Resolved, That while we do not advise proscription toward any, or to assume the task of prescribing for all, that it is the duty of every member of the Church of God to be discreet and cautious with reference to the kind of amusements they engage in, and the time and place they may select for the same.

PUBLICATION OF CONFERENCE MINUTES.

THE Committee on Publication of Conference Minutes present their report:

The Minutes for 1873 were published as expeditiously as possible, at the Book Concern at Cincinnati, at a cost of $236.37. Total receipts, $211.82; due from members of Conference, $18.93. Of this amount, all but $2.89 may be collected, which would leave a deficit of $8.51, due to the loss of one page of advertisements. We recommend that the deficit be charged to account of the present year. The failure of preachers to pay for their Minutes promptly, embarrasses the Secretaries.

Resolved, That the Conference roll be called, to ascertain the number of copies of the Minutes each member is willing to take, which, taken in the aggregate, shall be the number of Minutes published.

Resolved, That in case any brother, being notified by the Secretary that his Minutes are sent to him, does not receive them at the express or post-office within three weeks, he shall by letter notify the Secretary; otherwise he shall be held responsible for them.

Resolved, That the members of the Conference be required to pay for the Minutes to their presiding elder, on or before the 1st day of December, 1874, who shall forward the same to the Secretary of the Conference, and, in case they do not pay before January 1, 1875, there shall be added ten per cent to the amount due.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

THE Methodist Church has from the first made laudable efforts to educate her people, recognizing as a fact that the secular schools should never be permitted to supplant those of the Church. It will be a sad day for religion in this country, when the education of the people is given wholly into secular hands. It is to be regretted that many people seem inclined to favor the entire secularization of education in this country by substituting the graded schools to the exclusion of the higher institutions of the Church.

While the State is in duty bound to furnish for its subjects a free, universal education, the Church is equally bound to furnish a Christian education for her membership. Besides this, the Church can not afford to lose the opportunity of bringing our young people under obligation to her for their intellectual culture. Therefore, while, as a part of the body politic, we favor the present system of public instruction, and will do all we can to promote its success and prevent its perversion, still, as a Church, we must insist on maintaining the integrity and assuring prosperity of our colleges and universities. We ought, as the Discipline directs, to have one well-endowed college in every Conference, and for every four Conferences a university.

Let us express devout thanksgiving to the Heavenly Father for the abundant success which has attended the efforts of our Church to furnish our people with a liberal Christian education, free from any taint of the infidelity which has been so prevalent in the higher educational institutions of the world.

Ours has been an effort to raise at once the intellect and heart to Christ.

More than a hundred institutions of learning, under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, are now engaged in molding the minds and hearts of the future Church, thus preparing her for a career of glory which will even eclipse the wonderful successes of the past.

Incalculable good has already resulted to both Church and State. Preachers, teachers, lawyers, doctors, statesmen, who were prepared for their vocations in these schools, have gone out to impress society with their culture, and will not forget to whom they are indebted, in the prosperity which comes to them through the endowment of the Church. Those who are not ingrates will give largely of their influence and means to swell the aggregate glory of our future.

But we must remember that nothing worthy of the Church we represent can be accomplished without great and united effort. If capitalists, educators, pastors, and parents, will unite in this work, our schools all over this country would, in a short time, double their capacity for good.

Unite with us, dear brethren, in prayer for the increased success of all our educational enterprises.

INDIANA ASBURY UNIVERSITY.

WE greatly rejoice to learn of the continued prosperity of this, our oldest institution in the State. Four hundred and fifty-nine students have been in attendance the past year, and among the number one hundred ladies. Thirty-five—the largest class that has ever finished the course—received diplomas at the late Commencement.

Though the past Collegiate Year will be referred to as the year of rebellions among the students of our colleges, East and West, and though Asbury has passed a trial, probably unparalleled in her history, yet so successful has been the government, that an almost perfect discipline has been reached. This fact alone will speak for the ability and efficiency of Dr. Andrus, the President, and of his co-laborers in the Faculty.

For full financial showings, see late Catalogue.

The new building, a model of beauty and taste, will be occupied, in part, at the opening of the coming College Year.

Several of the departments have been finished by special wealthy friends of the University. May the Lord open the hearts and pockets of others, that they may go and do likewise! John W. Ray has finished, at an expense of $500, the Latin Room, which is to be named "The Edwin Ray Hall of Latin."

C. W. Smith, of Indianapolis, has completed one of the suit of Natural Science Rooms.

The Rev. Daniel DeMotte's family have finished one of the President's rooms, which, in honor of Father DeMotte, is to be called "The DeMotte Hall of Mental and Moral Science."

J. W. L. Slavens, of Kansas City, Mo.; Jas. E. Downey, of Indianapolis; and Richard Biddle, of Greencastle, have contributed $1,100 for the finishing and furnishing of the Room of Mathematics, which, in honor of Professor Chas. G. Downey, of precious memory, is to be named, "The Downey Hall of Mathematics."

At the last session of the Board of Trustees and Visitors, it was ordered that "Tuition in the regular college classes hereafter be free;" also, that immediate steps be taken to endow a "Lady's Professorship," that thereby co-instruction as well as co-education, may be inaugurated.

The term of office of the Hon. Will Cumback and Hon. J. C. M'Intosh expires with this session of the Conference, and that of J. W. Locke by transfer, as trustees; also, the Conference is entitled to two visitors.

We finally commend most heartily this, our beloved, time-honored institution, to your continued prayers, patronage, and good-will.

MOORE'S HILL COLLEGE.

THE actual attendance of students in this institution the past year was one hundred and sixty-four. There were five graduates,—four Scientific and one Classical.

Professor Bennett resigned the Chair of Natural Sciences, and Mrs. Hannah P. Adams, widow of the first president, was chosen to fill the vacant chair. With this exception, the Faculty remains as it was the two past years. We recommend that the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. F. A. Hester, D. D., President, Rev. J. P. D. John, A. M., and Rev. J. A. Maxwell, A. M., Professors of Moore's Hill College. We also recommend that Rev. E. G. Wood, D. D., and Captain H. D. Moore be appointed proxies to vote the stock of the Conference in the election of trustees. We make this recommendation in pursuance of a custom of the Conference. But we think it would be better, hereafter, to elect trustees in Conference session; and we therefore recommend that the secretary of the Board of Trustees be requested to send annually, hereafter, to Conference, the names of those trustees whose term of office shall expire during the year, that the Conference may fill the vacancies. Allow us to make one more recommendation. The name first given to the institution at Moore's Hill, was the "Male and Female Collegiate Institute," and this is still its legal name. But the name in the catalogues, in the diplomas, and in common use, is "Moore's Hill College." We recommend that the trustees be instructed to take the necessary legal steps to have the older and longer name changed to the newer and shorter one. Let us add, as another reason for this change, that the course of study in Moore's Hill College is now equal to that of Western colleges.

But the subject, which has received the most serious attention of your Committee, and to which we earnestly invite the attention of Conference, is the financial condition of this institution. It is well known to Conference that Moore's Hill College has been compelled to depend wholly upon tuition to defray all its current expenses, including the salaries of its professors. The revenue thus produced has, almost every year, proved unequal to the demands made upon it. The resulting deficit has been met, from year to year, formerly by the lamented J. C. Moore, and latterly by his heirs. It will be remembered that a debt of nearly $12,000 accrued chiefly from this cause during Mr. Moore's life-time, and was canceled by him on certain conditions, which were accepted by Conference.

Another debt having grown up from the same cause, at the suggestion of Dr. Hester a Convention of friends of the College was held on the tenth and eleventh days of last June, the results of which were favorable beyond the most sanguine anticipations. A Committee, appointed by the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors, reported that the "floating debt" was $8,957.22, and that there was an Endowment Fund, invested and producing interest, amounting to $8,361. It was further reported that there were outstanding collectible notes to the amount certainly of $1,000, and most probably of $1,600, to be added to this fund. (The agent informs us that, of these notes, one hundred dollars in cash has come into his hands since the Convention.) It was then proposed that the friends of the College in Moore's Hill and vicinity pledge an amount sufficient to liquidate the debt, on condition that the Endowment Fund be increased, within five years, to $20,000, and in the hope that this Conference would give such encouragement to the movement as would insure its success. The proposition was responded to nobly. The whole debt was pledged—half of it by the heirs of J. C. Moore, to whom the debt is due. These pledges have nearly all been converted into notes, dated June 10, 1874, with interest collectible annually, the principal to be collectible when the $20,000 shall be secured, if done within five years; but if not secured within that time, the notes to be null and void. The Endowment Fund was also increased, during the Convention, by the amount of $2,125 in pledges, a considerable part of which has been also converted into notes; and the remainder, no doubt, will be similarly secured, as soon as it is known that Conference earnestly favors the proposition. The endowment notes are drawn in the same form as the notes to pay the debt, the difference being their designation as "endowment" notes, and their stipulation to pay ten per cent interest annually. It will be observed that these notes all bear interest, collectible annually and unconditionally (the debt notes six per cent, and the endowment notes ten per cent), while the principal is conditional. The object had in view in making the notes pay annual interest, was to furnish a source of revenue in addition to the Tuition Fund, to save the College from becoming again involved in debt.

Let us repeat that the debt has all been conditionally provided for by responsible citizens of Moore's Hill and vicinity; that the

Endowment Fund collected and invested is	$8,361 00
Collected and now in the hands of the agent	100 00
Collectible old notes (at least)	1,000 00
New notes and pledges	2,125 00
Total Endowment Fund	$11,586 00

Amount yet to be pledged to make the $20,000, and to secure the amounts already pledged, $8,414.

We are well aware that $20,000 would be a very small Endowment Fund; yet, small as it is, we believe that such a fund, combined with the fund arising from tuition, will produce a revenue which will enable the College to LIVE—and to grow; for others will then come to its assistance who now stand aloof. But without the additional $8,414, we seriously fear the College must die.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

THIS important institution is located healthfully and beautifully on Lake Michigan, near Chicago, and is accessible from all parts of the country. It is well endowed, and is doing a noble work in preparing our young men for the ministry.

The whole Church demands that its ministers be fully qualified by the broadest possible culture for the great work, to which God has called them. A merely literary culture is not enough. The man of God must be thoroughly furnished. The theological school must supply a want that no other institution can supply. If any part of the education must be left out, let it not be a complete knowledge of God's Word. Here are the means of success. The Bible is the sword of the Spirit, and can only be wielded successfully by trained hands.

The report of the Committee of Visitors from surrounding conferences is the only document at hand, relating to this institution, from which your Committee can make up the items of their report. From that report we gather the fact that the institution is in a healthful, prosperous condition. We heartily commend it to your patronage and prayers.

BROOKVILLE COLLEGE.

IN reference to Brookville College, the facts, as far as can be ascertained, are as follows: The college sold for $12,000 to the School Board of the town of Brookville; $5,000 of the proceeds were claimed and paid over to George Holland, Esq., who donated the ground and made a reservation in the deed, that where the property should cease to be held and used for college purposes, it should revert. The sale was made in April, 1873. On the 3d of May, of same year, at a meeting of the Board of Trustees, the $7,000 coming into their hands was disposed of as follows, namely: $3,000 was given to the Methodist Episcopal Church in Brookville, for the purpose of purchasing a parsonage and repairs on the church-building; $4,000 was set apart for educational purposes, the proceeds of which were appropriated to the Academic Department of Brookville Graded School. No definite period named for the continuance of this appropriation.

At the above-named meeting, J. W. Keely, a member of the Board, proposed to give the $4,000 to Indiana Asbury University, for scholarships for the use of young men and women within the patronizing territory of Brookville College. This was voted down, and the above direction given to the proceeds of the fund.

The following resolution was passed at the same time, as proposed by J. W. Keely:

"Resolved, That hereafter, should the fund of $4,000, now voted to be held for the support of the Academic Department in Brookville Graded School, cease to be used for such purpose, in that case the proceeds of the same shall be given either to the Methodist Episcopal Church in Brookville, or the cause of education in the Methodist Episcopal Church."

Dr. John R. Goodwin, C. R. Cary, and William H. Jones were appointed the custodians of said fund. Subsequent information says that the Board of Trustees of Brookville College have disbanded, and that the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Brookville—namely, R. P. C. Barwick, W. H. Jones, John King, John R. Goodwin, and William Reynolds—were made the custodians of this fund of $4,000. We presume this information is correct. In view of the fact that this fund was raised for educational purposes in the Methodist Episcopal Church, we doubt the legality of the direction given to it by the late Board of Trustees of Brookville College; we claim the right to look into this matter; we believe this fund of $4,000 ought not to be thus diverted from its original purpose. We therefore recommend the Conference to recognize R. P. C. Barwick, W. H. Jones, John King, John R. Goodwin, and William Reynolds, as the custodians of this fund for the present, and that a Committee be appointed, consisting of Dr. Keely, Dr. Lynch, and M. L. Wells, to look into this matter, and confer with the custodians of the fund, and report their action at the next session of the Conference.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

THE Committee on the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society submit the following report:

We believe this Society, wherever operated, is a means of diffusing information on the subject of missions and missionary work, that can not be too highly esteemed. Since it has been adopted by the General Conference as one of the regular enterprises of the Church, and we, as pastors, are required to care for all such interests, it is our duty to labor to advance this among other causes of our Church, which will more fully enlist the heart of woman, and employ her talents in the kingdom of our Lord. There is a large falling off in contributions to this cause in Indiana; also, in subscriptions to the Heathen Woman's Friend; therefore,

Resolved, That we will make ourselves acquainted with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and represent its claims to our congregations, and will urge the women of our congregations to form societies in furtherance of its objects.

REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

YOUR Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath present the following report:

The perpetuity of the Church depends almost entirely upon the perpetuity of the Sabbath. God saw, in his infinite wisdom, that one day in seven as a day of rest was necessary both for man's physical and spiritual recuperation; and without this, man is liable to premature physical decay, as well as to the entire neglect of his allegiance to his God, to spiritual and eternal death. The Sabbath is intended as a day for thought, reflection, meditation, and communion with his own heart, and with his Creator. And it is also the Church's recruiting day—her rallying day. Take this day away from her, and you break her power.

Infidelity understands this fact full well; and, in its contest with light and truth, it has virtually acknowledged its own imbecility in its effort to seek shelter and protection behind the law. It has joined hands with the whisky-drinking, political demagogues of the day in an effort to legislate the observance of the Sabbath out of existence. Hence the Church, to-day, has sufficient cause of alarm, to call forth in a proper manner all her powers of pulpit and pew, as well as her true and unerring ballots at the polls, to check every encroachment upon its sanctity.

Let a sermon be preached upon this subject in every pulpit within the bounds of our Conference during the coming year.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

WE, the ministers and members of the South-eastern Indiana Conference, hereby record our gratitude to Almighty God for the progress that has been made in the cause of temperance since our last convocation, especially in our own beloved Commonwealth, and in our sister State, Ohio. But in the midst of our rejoicing, let it be

1. Resolved, That we will never cease our labors for this cause until God shall release us from toil, or humanity be safe from the power of intemperance.

2. Resolved, That in response to the request of the ladies in their late Convention, held in the city of Indianapolis, we will publish, from our pulpits, and recommend the 8th of October proximo, as a day of humiliation, fasting, and prayer, for the blessing of God upon this cause; and that we will preach upon the subject Sabbath, October 11th.

3. Resolved, That we will use our best endeavors to introduce temperance literature into our homes, the Sabbath-schools, the Churches, and the communities in which we may reside.

4. Resolved, That we are opposed to all plans for raising revenue, for educational or other purposes, from the whisky-traffic, believing it to be demoralizing in its educational effect.

5. Resolved, That while there are hundreds of licensed saloons in the State of Indiana, we fail to comprehend the propriety of substituting our present law, which has accomplished so much for sobriety, by a license law; and, moreover, we have reason for suspecting that all such suggestions are made in the interests of whisky, and are designed as a fraud upon the unsuspecting.

6. Resolved, To preach temperance, sign pledges, pray for, or even contribute to that cause, and then vote whisky, is an inconsistency that no Christian man, or even a good citizen, can afford.

R. ROBERTS, Secretary.

GENERAL CONFERENCE ACTION ON TEMPERANCE.

BELIEVING, as we do, the Church of Christ represents and embodies the only true principles of individual and national reform, it is our settled conviction that we must rely mainly for the success of the temperance cause on her leadership and co-operation.

From the very first, our Church has been bold and emphatic in her utterances and measures against the evils of intemperance.

She has waged an uncompromising and vigorous war against this, the dire foe of humanity and Christian civilization. She has clearly defined her position, unqualifiedly condemning both the sale and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage. While we recognize this historic fact as of special significance, it is nevertheless true that the work of death has not yet ceased.

Intemperance still continues with unabated fury, spreading its desolating influences, like the dark wing of a tempest, over Christian and heathen lands.

It is, however, an occasion of rejoicing that the outlook is now more hopeful. Public sentiment is being aroused and directed in the right channel. In the influences that centralize in and around our National Congress, there has been a marked change for the better. It is not now, as formerly, deemed an essential part of the courtesies of social life to proffer the wine-glass or other liquors. A higher Christian sentiment is gaining the ascendency. We hail this as the dawn of a new era in the Temperance Reform.

We may here note another feature, or fact, that gives promise of more definite and beneficial results. The State is waking up to the magnitude of the interests involved, and is beginning to comprehend the necessities of the case. Civil legislation, wise and heroic, is tightening its hold on the monster intemperance, and aiming a death-blow at the very seat of its vitality. We believe the temperance law recently enacted in Illinois and some of the other States will prove no doubtful experiment, but will rather demonstrate the expediency of such a statutory provision, and is a harbinger of the complete and ultimate triumph of the temperance cause. God-speed the day!

Let not the Church falter in view of the approaching crisis, but let her gird on her armor anew for the battle. Now is the time for action—action earnest, persistent, well-directed.

While we are prepared to reaffirm our former views and commitments on this question, we believe we ought, if possible, as a Church, to take more advanced ground in enunciating a more elevated and comprehensive platform of principle, and in clearly, boldly marking out the lines of policy to be pursued.

We therefore recommend for adoption the following:

1. That we are more than ever convinced of the absolute need of total legal prohibition as a condition of the removal and cure of the evils of intemperance, and we here pledge our utmost endeavors to inaugurate so wise and salutary a dispensation.

2. That while we can never be satisfied with any thing less than the entire destruction of the liquor-traffic, yet we can but regard as a step toward that end the enactment of laws making this vast system of iniquity responsible for the losses and woes which have been so recklessly inflicted upon a long-suffering and too patient people.

3 That we not only regard the manufacture, sale, or the using of intoxicating drinks, as a beverage, morally wrong, but we also most earnestly protest against our members giving any countenance to the liquor-traffic by signing petitions for license, by voting to grant licenses, by renting property for such purposes, or by directly helping in any other way to promote intemperance. Any one thus acting is guilty of unchristian conduct, and is subject to disciplinary action.

4. That we should make special effort to secure the nomination and election to office of strictly temperance men.

5. That we recommend the use of unfermented wine on our sacramental occasions.

REPORT ON TRACT CAUSE.

THE Committee on Tracts submit the following report:

Commercial men use tracts. Scientists use tracts. Rome uses tracts. Infidels use tracts. Why should not every Christian use them? By religious tracts, thousands have been, and millions may be, converted.

Tract pages circulated at home for the year 1873	5,295,000
Reckoning each copy of Good News at 30 pages	30,495,000
Total	35,790,000
Receipts for 1873	$188 34
Receipts for 1874	184 35
Decrease	$3 99

Life-members are entitled to fifty cents' worth of tracts each year, and life-directors to two dollars' worth of tracts each year. Also, any charge is entitled to half its tract report returned in tracts. Last year, this Conference only received four donations from the Tract Society. This is an evidence of an indifference on the part of both preachers and people. Slight as is the attention given to the raising of funds for the Tract Cause, there is still less attention given to the distribution of tracts. In the words of another, "A tract needs a hand to reach it out, and a heart to give that hand warmth and strength." We now need, in connection with the Tract Cause, such a system of pastoral management, as will utilize all the lay talent of the Church.

Be it Resolved, That in the future we will make the Tract Cause a matter of serious thought and practical work.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

CURRENT facts suggest several points touching this great and recognized work of our Church for our present consideration:

1. Whatever may be the possibilities of mind, the aptness to learn, the well-known, trusting, and patient characteristics of the freedmen of this country, and their manifested desire to measure up to their duties and responsibilities as citizens and Christians, it is not to be expected that their elevation can be other than slow and gradual, calling for the labors of all true Christians and philanthropists for long years to come. To withhold proper instruction and watch care, and yet demand of them a real and fully developed manhood, is as unreasonable as neglect of duty on our part, in this regard, would be simply inhuman and cruel.

2. The fact that the Methodist Episcopal Church has not only the ear and heart of the freedmen of the South, but a peculiar organization that fits it—if not pecuniary means also—for the prosecution of this great work, more perfectly than any other Church, and the fact also that marked success has attended our efforts in the past, and that it presents to us a rich field of labor in the future, we may not, without incurring the grave charge of culpability, go back upon pledges made and convictions expressed in almost every possible form of deliverance.

3. And yet your Committee, knowing the fact that the reports of the pastors show that nearly one-fourth of the charges have done nothing in aid of this Society this year; that fully eight-tenths of the charges report merely nominal amounts, apparently more to save appearances than from deep convictions of obligation; and the further fact that, but for a special collection reported by Moore's Hill Charge, under what appears to have been the pressure of a special call, we would fall behind last year; and the fact also that, all told, we have raised but a fraction over one-fourth of our pledged amount,—we hesitate to recommend to the Conference for its adoption a set of standard collections for the coming year, only, perhaps, to be practically ignored.

And yet, 4. Fearing that, in the absence of such a standard, we may do even less in the future, we renew the recommendation to the presiding elders, to apportion to the several charges, according to relative strength, sums sufficient to make the aggregate of $1,500, as the amount to be raised by us for the Freedmen's Aid Society of our Church the coming Conference year.

Memoirs.

BISHOP THOMAS A. MORRIS.

We are again called to record upon our journal the death of one of our general superintendents. The Rev. Thomas A. Morris, D. D., Senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died at his residence, in Springfield, Ohio, September 2, 1874, in the eighty-first years of his age. He was a native of Kanawha Valley, Western Virginia, where he was born April 28, 1794. He was converted to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in the nineteenth year of his age. He was licensed to preach April 2, 1814. He was received on trial as an itinerant preacher in old Ohio Conference, held in Louisville, Ky., September 3, 1816. He was elected Bishop at the General Conference in 1836, in Cincinnati, which office he held for thirty-eight years. Through a long ministerial life of sixty years, he was a man of one work. Whether on a circuit, a station, a district, as editor of the newly established Western Christian Advocate, or in the general superintendency, he was the same devoted, energetic, persevering laborer in the cause of his Divine Master. Many who were co-laborers with him in other years could bear testimony to the fidelity with which he met every responsibility placed in his hands by the authority of the Church. Punctuality in all the duties of life, official or private, was characteristic of Bishop Morris. It was a rule with him to do every thing at the time, and thus he found time to do every thing required at his hands. By diligence in study, under the Divine blessing, he made himself a workman that needed not to be ashamed. His sermons were short and pithy, full of marrow and fatness, and were often closed amid the tears and shouts of the people of God. In social life he was quiet, kind, and considerate to all, and by his loving spirit he won the affections of the people among whom he labored. But his work is done, his warfare is ended, his physical sufferings are over; he has laid aside his armor; he has gone to join companions-in-arms in the "better land." The closing hours of his eventful life were calm, peaceful, and full of hope, and we feel assured that his entrance into the presence of the Great King was one of holy triumph. "The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance."

REV. JOHN MILLER.

JOHN MILLER was born near Floydsburg, Jefferson County, Kentucky, September 20, 1801. When John was about twelve years of age, his father and mother both experienced pardoning grace, and became members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the atmosphere of a consistent religious home, the children became deeply affected concerning their personal salvation. John, especially, was the subject of deep and intense conviction, and the victim of distressing doubts concerning the reality of revealed religion and the privilege of Christians experimentally to know their sins forgiven. At the age of fourteen, he applied for membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church, with a determination to walk by faith. This step served to increase the already deep concern for his soul. It was on Monday, during a protracted meeting, that he asked for a home in the Church. His godly sorrow for sin, most powerful in its effects upon his mind, continued, with scarce an hour's intermission for rest or sleep, until Wednesday evening following, when light from heaven illuminated his soul. In recounting to the writer, a few weeks previous to his death, this ever-memorable occasion, he remarked: "The evidence of my pardon, it seemed to me, was clear as heaven could make it. I thought I never again would doubt; but I did, and that very soon. I was tempted to think, possibly I may be deceived; and as I listened to this suggestion from the enemy, O how darkness again enshrouded my soul! But it was like the flying cloud after the storm; my doubts soon disappeared, never again to return from that day to this. The sunshine of heaven broke in upon my soul, and it has been shining pretty steadily nearly all the time for these fifty years and more."

About one year after his conversion, he accompanied his parents to a farm home in Knox County, Indiana, near Vincennes. On account of his fervent piety and natural gifts, while yet in his teens he was called to fill the position of class-leader and exhorter. In his twentieth year he was licensed as a local preacher, by the District Conference, and was almost immediately employed by the presiding elder to fill a pastoral charge. In 1823 he was admitted on trial in the Missouri Conference, which, at that time, included all the territory stretching from the western border of the Ohio

Conference, a little west of the Ohio State line, to the northern border of Texas.

His first appointment as an itinerant minister was Sangamon Circuit, Illinois, with Samuel H. Thompson as his presiding elder. His salary for that year was $48, in "cash and valuables." His subsequent appointments were as follows: In 1824, Indianapolis Circuit; 1825, Paoli; 1826, Illinois Circuit; 1827, Vincennes; 1828, Washington; 1829–30, Mt. Carmel, Illinois; 1831–2, Corydon. In the Autumn of 1832, the Indiana Conference was organized, and John Miller was one of the original number that composed this Conference. His appointments were all henceforward in Indiana, and in the following order: 1833–4, Charlestown; 1835, Salem; 1836, Crawfordsville; 1837–40, Vincennes District; 1841–3, Bloomington District; 1844, Wesley Chapel, Madison; 1845–7, Madison District; 1848, Mt. Sterling; 1849, Aurora Station; 1850, Columbus; 1851-2, Hanover; 1853, Paris; 1854, Wesley Chapel, Madison; 1855, Vernon; 1856, Vevay; 1857, Moorefield; 1858, Wooster; 1859, North Madison; 1860, Wooster; 1861, New Washington; 1862–3, Canaan; 1864–5, Elizabethtown; 1866, Vienna.

At Vienna, in 1866, the forty-fifth of his itinerant ministry, he closed his effective labors, and was placed, at the Conference of 1867, on the superannuated list. At first he took this relation with reluctance; but he soon saw the wisdom of the act, and cheerfully acquiesced.

November 8, 1827, he was united in marriage to Miss Catharine Henkle, with whom he lived in loving companionship till April 4, 1834, when she died. He was again married, June 21, 1836; this time to Mrs. Margaret Giles, whom, after a faithful and loving companionship of well-nigh thirty-eight years, he leaves in the deep sorrow of widowhood.

As a preacher, he was thoroughly evangelical, Scriptural, sound; not given to speculation, nor inclined to metaphysics. He contented himself with a clear yet fervent statement of Gospel truth, relying upon the Holy Spirit to make it the efficient power of God unto salvation. Among the "pilgrim fathers" of Indiana Methodism he occupied a prominent position, filling some of the most important appointments in the gift of the Conference. Nearly one-fourth of his long itinerant career, he filled the office of presiding elder. In 1844 he was a delegate to the General Conference.

Plain man as he was, he yet had an ornamental side to his nature. He was an ardent admirer of music, vocal and instrumental. He was especially delighted with the solid songs of the sanctuary. For years, among his large circle of acquaintances, both lay and clerical, he bore the enviable name of "Sweet Singer of Israel." He was compelled to sing many a "solo;" for when he sang, all others wished to listen. This love of music, which advancing years did not in the least abate, contributed no doubt to the continuance of his genial and happy nature. He has been heard to say, "I never want to be a churlish, croaking old man." "Should I live to be ever so old, God deliver me from a sour, complaining spirit," was his prayer. It was answered. A vein of polished humor marked his spirit in his intercourse with the people. A hero by nature, a gentleman by culture, a Christian by grace, he was always a thrice-welcome guest in the social circle. He was a man of untiring industry. An energy of purpose and determination of will bore him, with a good constitution, through a long life of most herculean labors. Possibly, with a less strain upon the physical organism, he might yet have been with us. "He rests from his labors."

As a Christian, brother Miller enjoyed a deep, rich, religious experience. He has often been heard to lament, as the chief thing that impeded his progress toward a full development of a perfect man in Christ Jesus, the presence of a spirit of impatience, that made it difficult for him to "avoid the appearance of evil." Alluding to this infirmity, in a recent conversation, he said: "But when I look to my forgiving God, he seems to pardon me; yes, I know he does." He continued: "Every moment Lord, I need the merits of thy death. Bless God! every moment I have the merits of his death!" I have, in the above imperfect sketch, alluded to his deep conviction, his powerful conversion, the joyful witness of the Spirit, the joint testimony of his own spirit and life. On this same recent occasion, our conversation turned upon the doctrine of Christian perfection. "Yes," said he, "brother, that's the right name for it; not angelic perfection, nor Adamic nor legal perfection in wisdom or knowledge. O no. Christian perfection; that is it! Well, call it by what name you please, I have experienced perfect, abiding, sweet rest in Christ. O, how sweet and precious!" His countenance seemed to glow with the radiance of heaven as he bore this testimony. For more than fifty years, death had been disarmed of its terror. At any time he was prepared for it, wherever and in whatever form it might come. God honored him with a timely premonition. For more than a year he had been saying, "I know death is in the neighborhood, and not very far off." Months before his nearest and dearest friends would assent to his conclusions, he reiterated his convictions of the near approach of his latter end. Two weeks ago he said, "My feet will soon tread the dark waters; but I have no fears, bless God!" Just a few days before his departure he rapturously said: "After I get to heaven, I don't know that I will look to earth for a whole year. It will take me so long to get round once with greeting the vast circle of friends I expect to meet."

He desired that those whose voices had so often thrilled him in the sanctuary should be present in the hour of his departure, that the melodies of earth might mingle with the grand harmonies of immortality. It was no mournful cadence, that contemplated a gloomy passage through the grave, but a sentiment that spoke a triumphant and immediate bound into the presence of God. The well known hymn,

"Nearer my God to thee," was his selection. His wish was gratified, in the song and in the singers.

"And hadst thou seen him when the veil withdrew,
And his blessed spirit from its prison flew;
What scenes of glory burst upon his sight,
What sounds melodious rang through worlds of light,
While heavenly friends thronged thick the shining road,
And hailed him welcome to the mount of God."

The moment long expected by him came at precisely two o'clock P. M., in the quiet of a holy Sabbath, the last day of Autumn, 1873. Seventy-two years, one month, and ten days after he had first breathed the vital air, Rev. John Miller fell sweetly asleep in Jesus.

W. W. SNYDER.

REV. SAMUEL PINKERTON.

REV. SAMUEL PINKERTON died at his residence on Rohampton Street, Indianapolis, Wednesday, January 28, 1874, at one P. M., after a long and painful illness. Funeral services were held at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Friday, 30th, two P. M., conducted by Rev. F. C. Holliday, D. D., consisting in the opening hymn, read by Dr. Gillett (No. 1083):

"How blest the righteous when he dies,
When sinks a weary soul to rest!"

followed by prayer by Dr. Lynch, reading Scripture lessons by Rev. E. B. Snyder. Dr. Bayliss read the second hymn (No. 1092):

"Lo! the prisoner is released,
Lightened of his fleshly load;
Where the weary are at rest,
He is gathered into God."

After the hymn was sung, Dr. Holliday read for a text from 2 Tim. iv, 7, 8, "I have fought a good fight," etc. Brother Holliday stated that these were words of triumph, and no other words would be proper for this service and this hour. The discourse was beautiful, well adapted to the surrounding circumstances, full of encouragement and hope to the friends and the large assembly present. The speaker went on to show how the life and death of our departed brother was illustrated by the text,—in fighting the good fight of faith, in running the race, and keeping the faith; holding fast to the form of sound words and sound doctrine, striving lawfully. The following is a brief memoir of our sainted friend:

Rev. Samuel Pinkerton was born in Israel Township, Preble County, Ohio, February 2, 1839; was converted in his nineteenth year, and joined the United Presbyterian Church, of which his parents and all his friends were members; married to Miss Marietta Ireland in the Fall of 1862. He removed from his old home and associations to try his fortune in the great and growing State of Illinois, finding a home near Paxton, Ford County, in the Spring of 1865. Providence was certainly plain in ordering the steps of this good man in this new but strange removal. Brother Pinkerton had long been impressed that it was his duty to preach the Gospel, but not in the same Church in which he had been raised. His restless soul cried out within, "Woe is me if I preach not the Gospel!" But, as yet, no door seemed to open to him. He united with the small and struggling Church denominated the Methodists at once, after his arrival in his new home. Soon after, he received license to exhort, and then to exercise his gifts and graces as a local preacher. In this relation he continued near two years, working upon his farm, and preaching regularly Sabbaths until, in the Fall of 1867, he was admitted on trial at the session of the South-eastern Indiana Conference, held at Connersville, Indiana, and appointed to Fairland Circuit. He accepted the appointment, and at once entered the work. The next year—the Fall of 1868—was appointed to Marietta Circuit. At the session of the Conference held at Indianapolis, September 15–20, 1869, brother Pinkerton was ordained deacon, and appointed to Lawrence Circuit, near the city. On this charge he remained two years. The last year, a great sufferer, found brother Pinkerton in such health as forced him to quit the field, which was the greatest trial of his life. The Conference held at Jeffersonville, September 6–11, 1871, Bishop Scott presiding, elected him to elder's orders, and granted him a superannuated relation. Not being present, he was afterward ordained at the session of the North Indiana Conference, at Logansport, in the Spring of 1873, by Bishop Merrill. Had our dear brother had the health and strength, he would soon have taken rank among the best and ablest of the ministry. He was a close student, coveting the best gifts of the ministry in order to increase his usefulness—many souls were added to the Lord as seals of his ministry—genial in disposition, not easily discouraged, a good pastor, faithful friend, kind husband, and an affectionate father. His last illness was accompanied with great suffering. He was following a brother and sister in the same path to the tomb,—that of inherited consumption. Although his sufferings were great, his mind was clear to the last. He had a kind word and smile for all.

Friday afternoon, January 16th, I visited him, as I had frequently before, and always found him happy. He said, in a low whisper:

"Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there."

Adding: "Glorious truth! Religion is glorious! Heaven will repay all my sufferings here." To his presiding elder, with whom he made all arrangements about his funeral, he said, "I am as happy as I can be, all the time." His mind was calm and trustful, saying, "Precious Jesus! I am not tempted a moment to believe he forsakes me." He sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, January 28, 1874, at one P. M., lacking five days of being thirty-five years of age. He ceased to work and suffer, and commenced to live forever.

The Masonic brethren took charge of the body, of whom the deceased was a member, and bore him to his final resting-place, in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis, planting the sprig of cassia by his grave. The spirit of our sainted friend awaits the redemption of his body.

"Lo! the pain of life is past,
All his warfare now is o'er;
Death and hell behind are cast,
Grief and suffering are no more."

Brother Pinkerton leaves a wife and two children, and an aged mother and many friends, to mourn his loss.

REV. ELIJAH M. FARR.

REV. ELIJAH M. FARR, of the South-eastern Indiana Conference, departed this life at Williamsburg, Indiana, March 27, 1874, aged forty years, nine months, and seven days. He was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, June 20, 1833, and, in his sixteenth year, he proved true the promise, "They that seek me early shall find me," and became a member of the United Brethren Church.

August 17, 1851, he was united in marriage to Miss Catherine Hale, with whom he lived happily for more than twenty-two years. He removed to Jennings County, Indiana, in 1856, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Vernon Circuit, and filled the various offices of the Church faithfully as Sunday-school superintendent, class-leader, and exhorter.

His ardent zeal for Christ, and faithfulness in all his official relations, impressed his brethren with a sense of his fitness for the ministry, and accordingly he was licensed to preach by the Vernon Quarterly Conference, February 27, 1864. He was employed as a supply, in 1866, on Westport Circuit; 1867 and 1868, Vienna Circuit; and in 1869, Houston Mission.

He was admitted to the South-eastern Indiana Conference on trial, September, 1870, and appointed to Nineveh Circuit, to which he was returned in 1871 and 1872. In 1873, he was appointed to Nashville Mission, and entered upon his work; but his rapidly failing health compelled him to give up his work.

During his illness he was cheerful and patient, his faith did not waver, and his hope was like an anchor; and when asked by his friends how he felt, his answer was, "I am happy;" and again and again he would repeat:

"Not a doubt doth arise to darken the skies,
Or hide for a moment my Lord from my eyes."

While consumption was slowly and surely wasting the body, grace was continually filling his soul, enabling him to realize, "though the outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day." His last days were days of holy triumph; and with great composure he gave directions concerning his funeral, which was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Edinburg, by his presiding elder, E. L. Dolph, assisted by R. Roberts, Pastor of the Church, and Professor J. H. Martin. The large concourse of people, many from his former charges, gave evidence of their respect and esteem for him. He was greatly blessed in his labors, being instrumental in promoting the secular and spiritual interests of the Church and the salvation of many souls. Brother Farr was a very kind husband, an affectionate father, and efficient pastor.

I visited him a short time before he died, and found him sweetly trusting in Jesus, saying, "I know in whom I trust; I do not guess at it;" and, as his countenance brightened, with stronger emphasis again he repeated, "I know in whom I trust," giving the fullest assurance that the sting of death was removed by faith in Christ, and that he soon would enter into that rest prepared for the saints of God.

A wife and eight children survive him, and deeply mourn their loss. May the Lord grant the entire family a happy reunion in "the sweet by-and-by!" God buries his workmen, but carries on his work; and we may say:

"Servant of God well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last."

Z. A. WADE.

REV. GIDEON M. BARBER, M. D.

GIDEON M. BARBER was born in Rush County, Indiana, September 25, 1824. In his twelfth year he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was converted in his fifteenth year. He attended the Seventh District School of Cincinnati in 1840 and 1841, entered Asbury University in 1845, where he remained two years, and in 1847 commenced the study of medicine with Drs. H. G. and M. Sexton, of Rushville.

In 1849 he entered the Medical Department of the University of New York. He practiced medicine in Rushville until he graduated at Pennsylvania University, Philadelphia, in 1857. During this year he married Miss F. E. Cassatt, of Cincinnati, and in 1859 removed to Connersville, Ind., where he practiced medicine until 1866. At this place he was popular, and a successful class-leader and local preacher. He took great interest in revival exercises, and managed his professional business so as to be present at nearly all the meetings, where his whole soul went out for the conversion of sinners.

In 1866 he removed with his family to Madison, where his health improved. While here, in 1868, he united with the South-eastern Indiana Conference, and was appointed to New Washington, where 106 persons were added to the Church on probation. In 1869 his appointment was Canaan, where 153 were received on probation. In 1870 he was appointed to Osgood, and 157 were enrolled. In 1871 to Baldwin Circuit, where 27 probationers were received on trial. At North Vernon, in 1872, he received 151 probationers. His last work was Brownstown, where he had his largest number of accessions, namely 251, making 739 in all. His labors are over, his work is done—he has entered into his reward.

Dr. Barber was a man of warm heart, full of tender sympathy, a most energetic worker, entering with all his heart into all the services of the Church. He dearly loved to preach a full and present salvation, and richly enjoyed the experience of it; and many are to-day rejoicing in the fullness of Gospel blessings through the instrumentality of this good man. A plain man, easily approached, he won friends; generous and true, he held them.

Dr. Barber was a warm-hearted preacher, and at times rose to an earnestness in his appeals that moved the hearts of his hearers. His greatest success was, however, in his personal labors among the people from house to house.

His final sickness commenced July 21, 1874. His sufferings were great, and from the first he was impressed that his death was approaching. While suffering greatly, his soul was sweetly resting in the consciousness of his acceptance in Christ. He said to one, "I am happy all the time." To another, "I am willing to suffer as well as to do for my Master." The writer heard him say, "I would like to preach one more sermon, that I might tell how Christ supports the sick and suffering." Under such grace as he had, he said, "It is nothing to die." As the writer sat by his bedside, he said, "Tell my brethren of the Conference that I died at my post."

He peacefully fell asleep in Jesus on the 14th day of August, 1874, in his fiftieth year of age, at Brownstown, Ind., and leaves a wife and four little children.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. Benton, of Brownstown, on the following Sabbath, and the body was conveyed to Cincinnati, Ohio, and on Monday was interred in Spring Grove Cemetery.
